

(in 1 H students worked on climate change with their English and Science teachers this months)

April for the environment

Classroom objectives for this month :

1. Functions: Talking about wildlife and the countryside
2. Vocabulary: natural features, wildlife, environmental issues, the weather
3. Grammar: future forms

Objective 1 in terms of listening:

- Understand the main information referring to a particular place from a natural point of view (BBC video)
- Understand the information given by weather forecasts
- Understand people's opinions commenting on the initiative called "Earth Hour"

Objective 2 in terms of speaking:

- Talk about the most serious environmental problems
- Talk about the weather
- Talk about endangered species

- Express your opinion of agreement/disagreement on the initiative called "Earth Hour".

Objective 3: in terms of reading

- Understand a nature quiz
- Understand a short text about the possible extinction of polar bears. Read and understand the main and specific information related to three different animals
- Read a short informative text about the initiative called "Earth Hour"
- Read and understand different texts on wild and/or endangered animals