

NELSON MANDELA

“No one is born a slave, nor Lord, nor to live in misery, but we are all born to be brothers”.

South Africa had a political system called apartheid, black people had to live apart from white people.

1953-1960 Mandela was arrested for being a leader of the ANC.

1994 Mandela became the first black president of South Africa.

1993 Mandela won the Nobel peace prize.

ROSA PARKS

“The Woman who didn’t stand up”.

Rosa Parks was a national hero. She had been working for a long time to help black people. Rosa was a secretary for a black organization in America called the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

On December 1, 1955, Rosa said “NO” to a white man in Montgomery, Alabama.

The police came and took Rosa to jail. Black people became so angry about this. So they started a bus boycott

BOB MARLEY

“And if a dream has so many obstacles, means that it is the right one.”

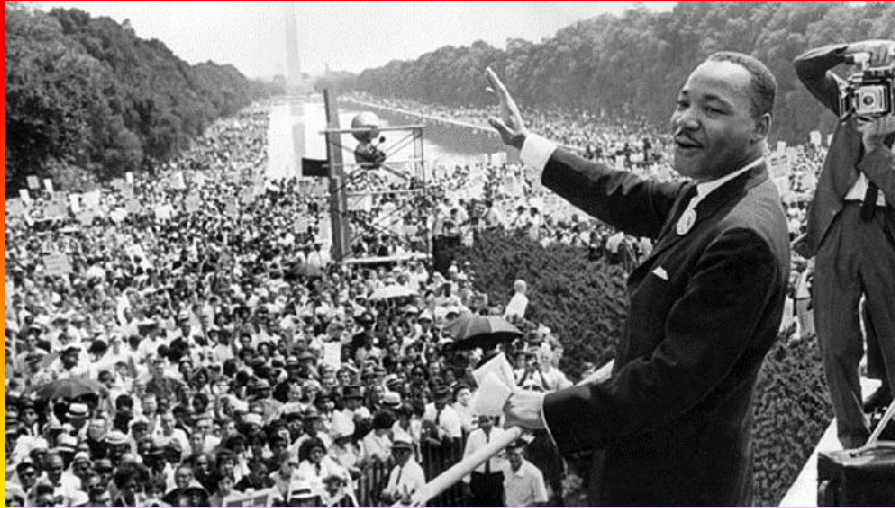

.Bob Marley is a jamaican singer and song writer who popularized reggae music.

Martin Luther King

“i have a dream”

He was an activist in the struggle for the conquest of the civic rights of black people.

He was against the use of violence for get equal rights.

On 1963 he led a march in Washington DC, in which he calls for an end to racism in USA. 250.000 people participated at the march.

He was assassinated on April 4, 1968 in Memphis.