Project 1: Systems of government: The UK, the USA and Italy

Pupils did research and studied the system of government in the UK, USA and Italy, compared and contrasted them. Then in groups they presented their work in a PPT, a slideshow, a padlet, a video, an interview, etc. Information, planning, creativity and communication were evaluated. Pupils uploaded their works on the school platform Microsoft Teams.

The slide has a dark green background. At the top, the title "THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT" is written in red. Below the title, there are two paragraphs of white text. The first paragraph states: "The Government of the Italian Republic is a part of the Italian political system, made up of the Prime Minister and Deputy Ministers and Undersecretaries; which constitutes the summit of the executive power." The second paragraph states: "The Government is a constitutional organ, in that, in a position of independence with respect to other organs of the State, the formulation of the political direction." To the right of the text is the Italian coat of arms, which features a red star in the center, surrounded by a green laurel wreath. Above the wreath is a red banner with the words "REPUBBLICA ITALIANA" in white. The title "IL GOVERNO" is written in white on a red rectangular background above the coat of arms.
