

Twilight movie report

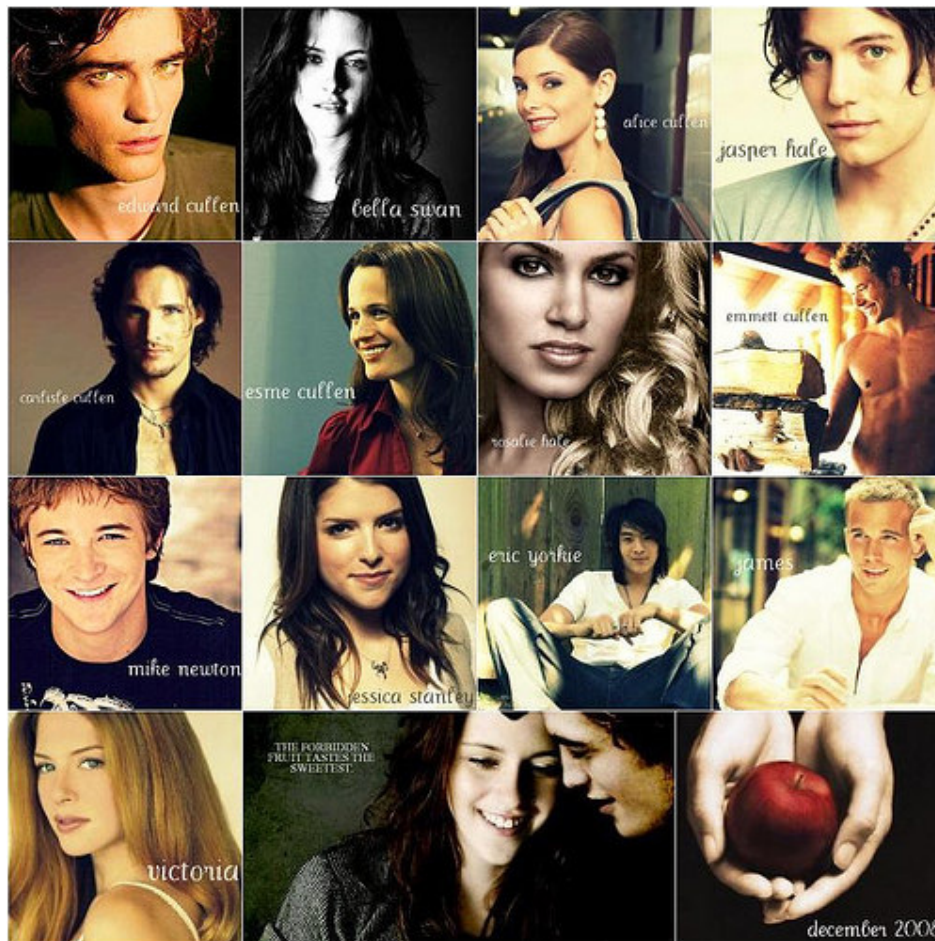

Twilight is a movie by Catherine Hardwick, based on “Twilight”, a novel by Stephanie Meyer.

Kristen Stewart is Bella, a girl that, after her mother’s marriage, goes to live with Charlie, her dad, in Forks. In this small city it always rain, Bella thinks it’s the worst place for her, but at school she meets a “boy”, who is the most handsom of the school. His name is Edward Cullen, starred by Robert Pattinson. The boy has a secret that Bella will reveal...

Edward is a vampire, but he’s “vegetarian” because he only drinks animals’ blood.

He’s very dangerous for her, because Edward would like to drink her blood, but he falls in love with her.

This forbidden love story has enchanted a lot of people. The movie is wonderful, but the book is much better.

Kristen Stewart is too beautiful to star Bella, because Bella is nice, but isn't beautiful. Besides, in the movie she is too scared of Edward, while in the book when he's away she feels badly.

Robert Pattinson is amazing, his Edward is perfect. He looks at Bella as if she was something to eat, and his golden eyes are magnetic, you can't look away from them. Although Rob's Edward is too cold towards Bella, his interpretation is brilliant. To me, the film shows all the most important details of the novel, e. g. the golden eyes of vampires when they aren't hungry, or when Edward shows Bella the "real Edward", who shines with sunlight and whose skin appears covered with diamonds.

However, in the movie many scenes miss, as when Edward wants to say to Charlie he is Bella's boyfriend, or when Jacob tells her the "cold ones" story.

The Cullen family instead is perfect, they are really white, and all of them are beautiful and strong.

Emmet is my favourite Cullen, because he is the strongest.

Carlisle is too white and old, because in the book he's twenty-eight.

Alice is fantastic and very funny. Rosalie is very unfriendly with Bella, because she would like her to remain human.

Jasper is funny and strange because he always appears in difficultly when there are humans about.

Esme is the mum, she is very kind and friendly with Bella, because she loves her.

Besides, there are James, Victoria and Laurent, the bad guys.

James wants to kill Bella and Victoria wants to help him.

In the book Edward doesn't fight against James, while in the movie they do.

Twilight the movie collected seven million dollars in two hours, more 60,000 dollars a minute.

The director Catherine Hardwick said that the sequel "New Moon" will be released at Christmas 2009.

Twilight is a great movie I saw it twice and in my opinion it's the best of year. To a lot of people the movie was a disappointment. They said the book is much better. This is true, but the movie is great. I recommend it to everybody.
